President's Message

A yearbook speaks: it speaks about you, your friends, your achievements, your frustrations, your dreams.

You get out of college life no more than what you put into it. I hope you have gotten a lot out of your stay at Niagara College. If you have been involved, committed to learn and concerned about your fellow human beings, then your stay at the College has been truly worthwhile. The friends you made, the successes you achieved, the frustrations you experienced-this is the stuff of life. It's what made you mature and grow as an individual.

In glancing through this yearbook, I hope you will see yourself enriched by your experience at Niagara College.

I wish you peace and success.

BILLAR

Dedication

Dedications are funny things you know. You say something nice about a person or group of people, you let everybody know what they've done or what they are doing, and you show everyone that these people are alright. A dedication is the least you can do for them. Well, for the 1973-74 Student Administrative Council at Niagara we are saying just that. Not only do we believe in who they are, but also, we have faith in what they are doing. Isn't that all there is?

look
to the centre
anf follow its flow.
flow
with the rhythm
and let it
fill you with the touch of life.
be harmonious-
with yourself
and others,
give of yourself.
observe,
drift,
reflect
and take action.
breathe,
celebrate,
and
live
each moment.

and remember,

fear not the mystery
for therein lies light,
fear not the gentle
for therein lies quiet faith,
fear not yourself
for there is love,
fear not life,
but always make
earnest attempts to feel good, for in the oasis in the desert and the clouds in the sky lies the wondrous nature of the magical mystical mountain.

Your Host Ernie Sutter
and Son Ernie

We would like to extend sincere congratulations to the 1974 graduating class of Niagara College and a hope for your continued success in the coming years. It is with pride we send out this our 7th graduating class in the history of the school, to take their place in society and assist in the future development of our nation.

We would hope that graduation shall not end your association with the college, but that you continue to look to Niagara College for your continuing educational and cultural needs.

Best wishes for the future.

happy ending, sad ending

Printed by Inter-Collegiate Press of Canada (1971) Ltd.

there is no end...

...for we are constantly.

growing, learning, changing. lifting our arms to the sun higher and higher until we begin to touch and breathe with the light ... breathe the light ... become one with light ... into stardust and infinity.

i hope you have found a pleasant experience with the days and nights of niagara, it's been fun being with you. warm thoughts to you and all the wonderful people who helped out especially to the audio visual department, mr. jack spittle, and the fine, fine people on the yearbook staff ... may your rivers flow.
